

A 3D digital rendering of an offshore oil production system. At the top left, a red support vessel is shown with several black lines representing umbilical cables extending downwards. In the center, a yellow and white offshore platform is situated on the water's surface. Below the platform, a tall, yellow lattice-structured riser extends into the water. The background is a dark blue gradient representing the ocean, with a faint grid overlay.

Devon Energy do Brasil Ltda.

*Estudo de Impacto Ambiental - EIA
Atividade de Produção de Petróleo no
Campo de Polvo (BM-C-8), Bacia de Campos, RJ*

Volume II – Rev. 00

devon

ECOLOGUS
Engenharia Consultiva

Agosto de 2005