

REPORT ON THE OCCURRENCE OF A SPILL OF POLLUTANT SUBSTANCES

I -	Authorized Company name and address: WESTERN GECO – COOK / ECOHUB
II -	Identification and company rank of the person in charge for elaborate the report: Roberta J. Cardoso – Environmental technician – ECOHUB Andrew Chappell – Party manager – WESTERN GECO
III -	Chronology and technical description of the event, including: localization of the involved unities (facilities) or installations and geographic area reached with affected ecosystems identification. On the evening of October 13th of 2012 approximately 900 litres of hydraulic oil spilled after a blanked pipe failed. More than 700 litres were – 24 38'S 043 50'S
IV -	External facts description which had contribute to occurrence or aggravate of the event and its consequences: Because of the ship rolling the oil got spread all over the deck and escaped overboard
V -	Probable causes of the event description and its aggravation, such as cumulative contiguous or circumstantial: Equipment failure of a blanked off pipe;
VI -	Discharged substances and, characteristics, estimated quantities, and prevision of the oil spill patch heading: Hydraulic oil – less than 200 litres
VII -	Mitigation measures carried description and short term results expected, including a recovery substance quantity: The use of SOPEP kit recovery more than 700 litres
VIII -	Event consequences description regarding an operational continuity and patrimony harm: None
IX -	Event associated fatalities and wounded persons number, sorted by company employees, third party and communities: None
X -	Unities, or facilities, or part of them, down time information, including full operational comeback prevision. The operation was stopped for 1 hour until the oil was cleaned up and the blanking plug fixed
CONCLUSION
Once the spill was discovered and the system was stopped we were able to recover more than 700 liters of oil from the deck with the SOPEP kit recovered – 3x200 liters plastic barrels and 1 big bag full of used absorbent sand and pads. Less than 200 liters accidentally discharged into the sea.

 Andrew Chappell – Party Manager

 14 OCT 2012
 Party Manager
 WG COOK

 Roberta J. Cardoso – Environmental Technician